Call to Worship

Donna Hoffman, Liturgist

One: In all our weakness and strength, with our youth-filled spirits and aging bodies,

All: we come to be your people, O God.

One: Strong in faith and eager with questions,
singing our praise and whispering our prayers,

All: we come to be your people, O God.

One: Filled with saintly determination
yet mindful of our human limitations,

All: we come to be your people, O God.

One: Made strong in your endless love for us, we know ourselves to be yours and

All: we come to be your people, O God.

One: May we truly become your people today. Amen.

Benediction

One: The Spirit of God is upon you and has anointed you.
You are the salt of the earth and you bring light to the world.

All: We are not too young or too old,
We are not too rich or too needy to bring good news to the impoverished, to give a hand to the broken-hearted,
and to live out freedom and pardon through the gifts we have been given.

One: So remember to pack peace in your toolbox,
hope in your briefcase,
love in your lunch box,
and may integrity, honesty, and joy be your designer wear of choice.

All: We are not frightened, for we are never alone.
The God in whose image we are made will walk with us and guide us today, tomorrow, and every day.
